

Dear Parents,

KSR Akshara has always been a motivating partner of growth and development in the lives of the students. So this summer holiday homework is aimed at creating awareness among Aksharites to realize and comprehend the pivotal importance of Reading in life.

“The more you read
the more things you know.
The more that you learn
the more places you'll go.”
-Dr. Seuss

English:

One is never alone when one is with books. Sitting in your room with your book you could go off to faraway places, meet all kinds of people, animals and birds. Read to discover lots of new things.

- 1) Read any three interesting story books and do the following exercise in A4 sheet.

Reference Books

- Draw your favourite character from each book
- Pick out 10 new words you have come across in each story book. Write them along with their meanings.
- Arrange the words of each story in an alphabetical order.
- Write any 5 adjectives from each story and write its comparative and superlative degrees.

Example : Tall Taller Tallest

1) Choose any one word from the list below .Make as many 3,4 or 5 letter words as you can from that word. Place these words neatly on a cutout and hang them under the beautiful, coloured and decorated cutout of the main word in an A4 sheet. Admire your creativity. (An example has been illustrated for you)

Suggested words

- What are the sources of energy you see in the picture.

Social Science

1. Things you should know

a) What is the PIN Code of your area?

--	--	--	--	--	--

b) Write full address of your home.

c) Find out the location of the nearest Post Office, Police Station and Hospital of your area and write the name in A4 sheet.

2. People usually go to hill stations in summer holidays. You too might have planned a trip. Make a list of things that you will carry when you plan to visit a hill station.

- We expect our Aksharites to emerge out as Multi Talented Individuals. The children can best comprehend the value of reading and learning only when parents inculcate the significance of it in their child. The interdisciplinary Holiday Homework will surely have positive impact on your child as a part of growing up of children in creating the awareness that will follow your children throughout their lifetime.
- So, it's a humble request to parents to take a positive interest, as the child learns a lot by doing. In fact, your guidelines will add an element of fun and excitement to the project work.
